Sir:

25 In the Notification of Missing Requirements dated October 17, 2001, it was indicated that an English translation of the above-referenced application had not yet furnished to the U.S. Patent Office. Applicant respectfully submits, however, that such translation was, in fact, submitted at the time of filing. Verification of such submission thereafter came in the form of a return receipt postcard which was stamped by the U.S. Patent Office, and which indicated that the Patent Office received the English translation.

30 Accordingly, Applicant respectfully submits that the processing fee for providing a translation of the application later than the appropriate 20 months from the priority date is not due in connection with the present application. For convenience, however, Applicant is again providing a copy of the English translation of the present application along with this response..

Respectfully submitted,
